“CULTURAL DIVERSITY”

— Adil Lothar Hasan

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

When I founded SAKALA in Bandung in 2026, I made one decision that shaped everything else: we would be small.

Small enough that every brother knows every brother's name.
Small enough that when one of us is in trouble, the circle can actually help — not offer condolences via comments section.

We do not care what brand is on your tank.
We care what story is in your engine.
Show up on a rebuilt a ride that carries your father's name,
and you will be understood.

We commit because commitment is the only currency that holds.

SAKALA

SANSKRIT · THE MANIFEST REALM

Sa (with, together with) + Kala (parts, time, all elements) the manifest, tangible, complete realm where spirit becomes action.

In Shaiva Siddhanta cosmology, Sakala is the state of deliberate manifestation: spirit choosing to engage, to be perceptible, to act in the world.

Source: Shaiva Siddhanta · Maitri Upanisad · Mahabharata · Kavi Tradition

HISTORICAL ROOTS

Three traditions. One name.

01

SANSKRIT

सकल

Upaniṣad Tradition

SA + KALA

Sa + Kala: “that which is with all its parts.”
Found in Maitri Upanisad and Mahabharata.

In Shaiva Siddhanta, Sakala is the mode of deliberate manifestation — Shiva embodied, perceptible, active. The manifest world is not degradation.

It is spirit’s most courageous expression.

KAWI

Old Javanese · Majapahit

SA - KA - LA

In Old Javanese (Kawi), sakala denotes the visible, actionable world — the realm of deeds that can be witnessed, measured, and recorded in kakawin chronicles.

Majapahit court literature preserved it as a standard for virtue rendered visible through action.

SUNDANESE

Bandung · West Java

SA KA LA

In Sundanese oral tradition, Sakala speaks to presence and completion — what is here, whole, accountable.

It rhymes with the Sundanese ethic of “Cageur, Bageur, Bener, Pinter, Singer” — wholeness of character expressed in the visible world, not merely intended.

WHO WE ARE

SAKALA is a Bandung-born exclusive brotherhood, founded in 2026 by Adil Lothar Hasan.

We are motorcycle-agnostic and character-selective:
any brand is welcome, but every motor must carry a story and every builder must carry a dream.

Intentionally small, bound by loyalty to the circle, dedicated to the growth of every member,
and held together by Memanusiakan Manusia to honor the humanity in one another.

A CIRCLE, NOT A CROWD.

02

02 — WHY WE EXIST

Mission. Vision. Manifesto.

MISSION

To build and sustain an exclusive brotherhood that honors the humanity in every member — investing in each other's ambitions, showing up in each other's hardships, and holding the circle to the standard of Memanusiakan Manusia in every action.

VISION

To be recognized as Indonesia's most intentional brotherhood — the model for what a motorcycle and airsoft community becomes when it is built on loyalty, welfare, and genuine humanization rather than numbers, brand, or performance of belonging.

We are not loud. We are not many.

We ride because we prepared.

We shoot because we disciplined.

We serve because we remembered what our elders taught: memanusiakan manusia.

We do not care what brand is on our tank. We care what story is in our engine.

We do not admit the drifting. We ride with dreamers who are doing the work.

We commit because commitment is the only currency that holds.

This is SAKALA.

03

03 — VALUES

The Four Pillars of SAKALA

THE FOUR PILLARS

01 LOYALTY

The bond is non-negotiable.

You do not join and receive brotherhood. You demonstrate loyalty and earn the circle. Loyalty means showing up when it is inconvenient, telling a brother the truth when a lie is easier.

02 MEMANUSIAKAN MANUSIA

To honor the humanity in another.

Not a slogan but a lived daily expectation. Every interaction — with members, sponsors, strangers on the road — is conducted as if the other person's dignity is non-negotiable.

03 KESEJAHTERAAN CIRCLE

Active investment in each other's future.

When a brother builds, the circle invests. When a brother falters, the circle lifts. Welfare is not charity — it is mutual commitment, operationalized.

04 PROFESSIONALISM

We hold the line, always.

Events are produced to industry standard. Partnerships are honored to the letter. SAKALA's word is binding. Memanusiakan Manusia is not suspended for commercial relationships.

MEMANUSIAKAN MANUSIA

To Honor the Humanity in Another

PANCASILA · SILA II

KEMANUSIAAN YANG ADIL DAN BERADAB

Just and Civilized Humanity — every person deserves just treatment and dignified engagement, without exception.

KI HAJAR DEWANTARA

ING NGARSA SUNG TULADHA

Those in front set an example; those behind provide encouragement. Leadership through humanization, not command.

MOHAMMAD HATTA

COOPERATIVE HUMANISM

Mutual-aid economics rooted in dignity. Individual welfare rises only when the collective rises. No brother left behind.

NU · RAHMATAN LIL ALAMIN

MERCY FOR THE UNIVERSE

Nahdlatul Ulama's foundational principle: to be a mercy not only for one's own community but for all creation.

04

04 — THE CIRCLE

How SAKALA Chooses Its Members

MEMBERSHIP

WE DON'T SEEK CROWDS. WE SEEK COMMITMENT.

Membership is not advertised. Entry is by introduction, vetted application, and extended prospecting.

We hold the number deliberately small because a circle can only be a circle at human scale.

ENTRY PATH

- Introduction by an existing member
- Extended prospecting — rides, events, and time together
- Character and commitment are the primary measure
- Exit is honored, not ashamed

WHAT WE OFFER

- A circle that knows your name and your ambition
- Genuine investment in your future and your welfare
- Rides, range days, events — built to our standard

WHAT WE ARE NOT

- × A mass club seeking numbers over character
- × A brand-selective club — we filter story, not badge

THE MOTOR STORY

Our First Test of Character

When a prospect is considered for SAKALA membership, the first formal step is the Motor Story: the rider presents their motorcycle to the circle and tells its story. How they found it.

Why they chose it. What they built into it. What it means.

This is not performance. This is the document of character.

WHAT WE LISTEN FOR

- Authenticity — is this a relationship or a purchase
- Craft — effort invested in understanding and building
- Meaning — what the machine represents in the rider's life
- Humility — recognition of mentors and collaborators
- Ambition — what this motorcycle says about what the rider intends to become

“THE BIKE MATTERS LESS THAN THE BUILDER.”

Format: 30-min conversation, garage or ride. No slides. No rehearsal.

UNWRITTEN RULES OF BIKER PATCHES

SAKALA MC

- Do Not Touch: Never touch a patched rider's cut (vest/jacket) or their patches. It is considered highly offensive.
- Respect the Hierarchy: The culture places massive importance on respecting veteran members and the most dominant MCs in your local region

We are not loud. We are not many.

WE COMMIT BECAUSE COMMITMENT IS THE ONLY CURRENCY THAT HOLDS.

THE ROAD. THE RANGE. THE CIRCLE.

THIS IS SAKALA.
